

1 delegated to him by the governor but no powers specifically
2 given to him by the Constitution shall be delegated. The 3 lieutenant governor also may have other duties as pre-
4 scribed by law."

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

6 DELEGATE MORGAN: Will you wait just a minute
7 while I confer?

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan, the Chair has 9 the feeling that the questions which have now been continu-
10 ing to you for 30 or more minutes and the doubts that have 11 been expressed and the suggested changes that have been 12 made indicate that perhaps it might be better if we would 13 break off this discussion and it would give you and your 14 staff advisor and other members of your committee an oppor-
15 tunity to consider this amendment over the evening and in 16 the light of the suggestions that have been made, do you
17 think that would be desirable?

18 DELEGATE MORGAN: That would be fine with me,
19 Mr. Chairman.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Rybczynski.

21 DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: Mr. Chairman, allow me to
